KAPITEYN 100 YEARS

In 2026, the Kapiteyn group proudly celebrates its 100th anniversary. What began in 1926 as a family business has grown into an internationally oriented group with a strong reputation in horticulture. For a century, Kapiteyn has been built on entrepreneurship, craftsmanship and a deep rooted passion for flower bulbs. Each generation has contributed to the company's development, always with respect for its heritage and a clear focus on the future.

This centennial milestone is a moment to reflect on the many people who have shaped Kapiteyn over the years. From family members and employees to growers, customers, partners and shareholders, together they form the foundation of our success. Their dedication, trust and long term relationships have enabled Kapiteyn to continuously evolve, adapt to changing markets and invest in innovation, quality and sustainability.

While we proudly look back on 100 years of history, our focus is firmly set on the future. Guided by the third and fourth generation and supported by our entire team, Kapiteyn remains committed to responsible growth, innovation and collaboration. With confidence and ambition, we continue building a strong and resilient company, with the goal of being here not only today, but also for the next 100 years.

OUR HISTORY

1930

First permanent employees

1926

Start of Gebroeders Kapiteyn (first generation)

Two of Leen Kapiteijn's sons, Jan and Cornelis, purchased four hectares of land on the Meerweg in Breezand and founded the company Gebroeders Kapiteyn. Helped and guided by their father Leen and brother Adriaan, they started there with the cultivation of flower bulbs. As one of the first flower bulb growers, Jan and Adriaan moved to the northern part of the province of North Holland. This part of the Netherlands has now developed into the largest continuous flower bulb area in the world.

1947

The family business expands even further; a piece of land with buildings was purchased on the Grasweg

1937

Second location on the Middenweg

In addition to the farm on the Meerweg that was purchased in 1926, the Gebroeders Kapiteyn were also offered a piece of land on the Middenweg, complete with a five-year-old double-decked flower bulb shed, which was considered modern at the time. The main office of the family company is now located at this site.

1969

To Italy!

1953

The second generation entered the company and is on the road five months of the year

The second generation entered the company at a rapid pace; Two sons each from Cornelis, Jan and Adriaan. Leo, a son of Jan, regularly went on business trips to the US. Not for a couple of days, but usually for about four to five months a year. He made the crossing by ship which took twelve days at that time. Given the tremendous distances he had to cover in the US, he bought a car when he arrived, and sold it again when he returned to the Netherlands. There, he focused his attention on the management and growth of the nursery.

1992

The third generation came in contact with the Calla. It was love at first sight

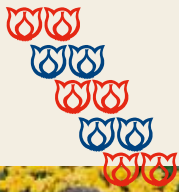

1980

The third generation reports

From the early 1980s, the third generation got to work for the family business. As with the second generation, the subsequent years saw another six Kapiteijns at the helm of the family business.

1998

Proof of good behaviour (third generation)

After a number of successful audits, our company became ISO 9002 Certified. This official Quality Certificate is awarded when an organisation meets the requirements of their customers, the laws and regulations applicable to the product and the requirements of the organisation itself. We scored well on all these points.

2019

Opening of the Captain Calla production facility

2015

The fourth generation

In 2012, Kapiteyn entered a new chapter as the fourth generation of the family business stepped in. Lennaert was the first to join, marking the start of a gradual transition, followed by Sjim in 2017 and Jody in 2018. Together with the entire Kapiteyn team and fellow shareholders, they continue to build on the company's strong foundation and shape its future.

2022

Expansion at Kapiteyn bv (4700m2) & Kapiteyn captain calla bv (2400m2)

2020

Solar panels

In 2020, Kapiteyn took an important step towards sustainability by installing solar panels on the roofs of its facilities. The initiative started with the new Captain Calla production facility. In the years that followed, solar panels were also installed at Kapiteyn bv, and Kapiteyn horticulture bv, further strengthening the company's commitment to sustainable operations.
